The people of Columbus are to be punished with another newspaper. It will be a penny sheet.

An exchange speaks of a woman so cross-eyed that when she weeps, tears from her left eye drop on her right cheek. One thing is certain, we can never have easy times, as a nation, so long as our five-cent men persist in smoking fifteen cent cigars.

The estimated cost to the State of maintaining the eighty county superintendents of schools, under the proposed "reform," will be $100,000.

Senator Thurman has our thanks for a copy of his speech on the Exercise of the Elective Franchise, delivered in the Senate on the 11th of December.

It was John Sherman's resumption on the first of January that brought that terrible "cold spell" upon the country—John always was a huge iceberg.

An inmate of the Holmes County Infirmary named Carbaugh, attempted to cut his throat with a razor a few days ago, but was prevented by another inmate.

O'Myers of the Columbus Democrat, has brought suit against Myers, without the O's, of the Dispatch, for libel—a very foolish proceeding, in our opinion.

Sarah Clark, a widow, of Zanesville, gave birth to a child on Sunday, and being alone, without fire, the child was frozen to death before aid reached her.

Judge Adams is holding Court at Delaware. The Grand Jury found eleven indictments—including bigamy, burglary, assault and battery, selling liquor, &c.

The Franklin County Delinquent Tax List bears them all. It occupies twenty-one long columns of the Statesman. A beautiful illustration of the effects of the Sherman contraction policy.

Zanesville Signal: A band of gypsies is tenting in this neighborhood, telling fortunes and forging off the farmers. No degree of cold can chill their disposition to steal anything they can carry.

A. J. Baughman and his sister, proprietors of the Mansfield Sunday Call, were arrested on Friday last for publishing an obscene paper, and taken to Beaverville.—They were bound over in $1000 to appear at court.

If the spirit of old Ben Franklin or some spirited tramp printer would visit the Akron Argus office some night, and throw all those abominable stereotype plates into the canal, we might possibly get a readable paper from that office once in a long while.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Nellie Smith Brown, the estimable wife of our valued friend Hon. George W. Brown, which occurred at Denver, Colorado, on the 15th of December. We are without any particulars in regard to the death.

Frederick Jacobs, the oldest engineer on the B. & O. road, over which he has driven an engine continuously since 1853, and who in forty-six years service has never had an accident without mentioning, resigned his place, last week, and is now engaged in preparing for publication a history of his life.

Miss Grace Fitz Randolph Schenck, daughter of Dr. Noah Hunt Schenck, of Brooklyn, (formerly Rector of Harcourt Parish, Gambier), was married to Erastus Corning, Jr., on Monday.
